

Paul Crawford

specialisation	monitoring and evaluation; project design address	po box 362 lake macquarie nsw 2264 australia pcrawford@aid-it.com.au nationality	australia & new zealand (born in papua new guinea) experience	2004 –	executive director, consulting	aid-it solutions pty ltd 1996 – 2003	principal consultant	crawford & associates
	1994 - 1996	project manager; program officer; director	adra international qualifications	doctorate of philosophy—sustainable futures, international aid M&E (2004) institute for sustainable futures, university of technology, sydney master of business administration (1998) graduate school of business, university of newcastle bachelor of rural science (1992) university of new england selected professional development	data analysis (spss) (jul 2002, aug 2004, department of mathematics, uts) best-practice project evaluation, workshop by professor dodo thampapillai & professor hans-erik uhlin (sep 2001, planning research centre, university of sydney) managing e-channels in the new economy (dec 2000, harvard university/melbourne business school) social audit training, (nov 1998, new economics foundation, london) commercial pilot license (1998, avondale college school of aviation) professional memberships	adjunct research fellow, institute for sustainable futures, uts member, graduate management association member, red-r (uk) observer member, active learning network for accountability and performance in humanitarian action (alnab) awards	humanitarian overseas service medal of australia (hosm) certificate of gratitude by the australian government for contributing to poverty reduction and sustainable development countries of work experience	albania, angola, australia, azerbaijan, burundi, cambodia, drc, east timor, ethiopia, indonesia, kenya, kosovo, laos, liberia, malawi, mongolia, pakistan, philippines, png, russia, rwanda, serbia, solomon islands, somalia, sudan, swaziland, switzerland, tanzania, thailand, uganda, uk, usa, vietnam, yemen		